Dear Mr. Kesselman:

We are in receipt of the three $20.00 gold pieces you sent us.

We feel that two of the coins are priced above what they are worth. We are willing to pay $1,100.00 for the three coins, and if this is acceptable to you, please respond by return mail and we shall immediately send you a check.

Very truly yours,

Dear Stan:

Thanks for your memo and offer of $3600.00 for the 1832
B.U. $5.00 gold.

We are sorry we cannot accept your offer.

Early in the year, we did offer it to you at $4000 net, but at this time must raise the price of the coin to $4250.00 on a wholesale basis. We will shortly offer the coin at $4750.00 retail.

If you desire the coin, you may have it right now at $4250, but this figure is subject to increase at a later date.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan:

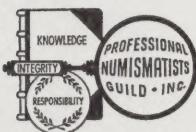

Thank you very much for your note of Jan. 19th.

We are definitely interested in the 1886 double eagle, although I was hoping you could do a little bit better on the price.

Would you please see that you could get it to us on approval? As soon as we receive it, we will show it to our customer, and I think there is a good chance to sell it, although I would like to repeat, that if you can do a little better on the price, it would make our job that much easier. We do not want to buy this coin for stock, and that is the reason I try to make it perfectly clear that we will take it only on approval and submit it to our customer. If he buys it - fine. We will be able to remit to you within a few days. If he doesn't, then of course we will have to return it to you. Under these conditions, would you please see if you could get the coin to us? If not, please let me know so that I can try somewhere else to procure this double eagle.

Regards,

DJS/eil

Dear Stan:

Thank you very much for your note of May 21st.

We are enclosing herewith the 1795 $5.00 gold piece, and the 1863 $20.00 gold piece, along with invoice for same.

I am sorry to tell you that at this time we do not have the four $20.00 gold pieces which you requested. As it happens, it was only yesterday morning, before we received your note, that we sold the 1930-S $20.00 piece.

However, we do appreciate getting started with you again, and I hope that your exams were a huge success.

Very truly yours,

Dear Stan:

I just returned from a brief vacation and have been busy trying to get straightened away, which is the reason you haven't heard from me prior to this.

Not too long ago you had an 1865 $10.00 gold piece. I am not sure in my mind whether it was the 1865 or the 1865-S. In either event, would you please send either or both of them to me immediately, at your best price?

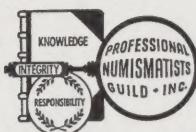

I hope I get to see you in person in the near future.

Yours very truly,

David J. Shapiro

P.S. - If by any chance you have an 1862, an 1862-S, or an 1886 $20.00 gold piece, please send them along also. Thanks.
